

10 more reasons to be an RN represented by MNA

- Creates camaraderie/strength/unity in the work environment.
- Empowers the RN's to use their voice and make a positive difference in the work environment and for their patients.
- Demonstrates a commitment to being informed regarding the issues the nursing profession is experiencing at the local, state and national level.
- Provides an avenue for becoming a leader through promoting positive staff nurse-administration relationships.
- Contract provides supervisors with guidelines for managing their units which makes handling issues an easier task.
- Share your expertise and obtain continuing education credits by attending or presenting educational sessions at MNA's Annual Convention.
- Collaborate and create change in governmental issues with other RN's in Montana at our Annual Convention as a district delegate.
- Realize the potential of your voice by becoming a delegate to the state or national conventions.
- Demonstrates your professional commitment to nursing at the local, state and national levels.
- Join your professional association of Registered Nurses in MT.